

Critic's Pick: Best Margarita

The Arizona Republic
May. 1, 2007 12:00 AM

Z'tejas Southwestern Grill

20 W. Sixth St., Tempe
7221 W. Ray Road, Chandler
ztejas.com

You know the margaritas are great when there's a limit - two per customer in this case.

Z'tejas limits customers because it knows how potent its potion is.

But the restaurant's frozen margaritas aren't designed to get you drunk any way. They're meant to be slurped slowly. Hurry the process and you'll wind up with brain freeze.

The best of the margarita bunch is the chambord, a delicious mix of Chambord Liqueur Royale floated on top of the restaurant's classic 6th Street Margarita.

Z'tejas also serves two other winners: the Paradise and the Pomegranate Rita.

Both are twists on its 6th Street Margarita, the first with a float of Grand Marnier Liqueur, and the second with Pama Pomegranate Liqueur floated on top.